From Fr. Dan, Pastor

Dear Friends,

Welcome Fr. Kevin! Fr. Kevin Staley-Joyce joins us as a full-time Parochial Vicar this Wednesday, July 17. So glad to have him!

Welcome Nick Frega as a new Pastoral Associate. He started July 1. You will love him!

Thank you to Fr. Michael Hahn! We will miss his outstanding homilies, talks and hospitality. Fr. Michael's folks were in town from MN for a vacation the weekend of the 4th, so being blessed with their help in packing, he moved up his departure date from late July to this past Thursday, July 11. "Thank you" cards can be sent to 3922 Welcome Avenue North; Robbinsdale, Minnesota 55422.

How much does Jesus love you? "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you."

Welcome to our church! We're glad that you could come. We're honored to share this day with you as we worship Jesus, God's risen Son. We hope that God touches your life and that you leave here with the peace of God renewed in your heart.

"The life of the Trinity is the perfect realization of perfect love, for in God there is an I and a you, but not a mine and yours." -- Father Walter Burkhardt

Christianity is forward-looking. Christians believe in the future. Something new is always happening in their lives. Conventionally, life is seen as an ascending curve topping out around the ages of forty or fifty. From then on, the curve irrevocably drops, vitality decreases, you get old and soon it is all over. For Christians, on the other hand, life is continuously ascending. The climax is the moment when we step over the threshold to eternal life. Death is not an end. Christians look at death as the gate into the indestructible life we have invisibly carried within us while on earth. The Christian view of death changes the view of life. To live is to be on the way toward the fulfillment of one's deepest longing. -- Fr. Wilfrid Stinissen, S.J.

Sports: We are the champions! The U.S. Women's Soccer Team won the World Cup! The Red Sox are in contention for a wild card spot. What trades will they make before the July 31 deadline? We could use another reliever. I'm glad the Celts have Kemba Walker instead of Kyrie Irving.

Love and God bless you, ~ Fr. Dan

New & Ongoing in Our Community

Summer Daily Mass Schedule Began Monday, July 1

Please remember that we have moved to a revised daily Mass schedule this summer:

Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 7:00am at Our Lady's Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday at 9:00am at Sacred Heart
in the Lower Church

The revised schedule will run to Monday, September 2 (Labor Day). Contact the parish offices with any questions.

July 14 ~ Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

"... heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes ...," Moses reminds us that the commandments are readily accessible. In fact, he goes on to say they are "already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out." Simply put - Love God, love your neighbor. Jesus presents that message in the familiar story of the Good Samaritan – a story with a universal message of love, mercy and kindness. The challenge is real. We need to trust that by God's grace, we already have what we need to carry out his command.

Spam Email Warning

As has happened several times in the past, this week several staff members and parishioners received emails from someone impersonating Fr. Dan and requesting financial help. This was a spam email! The official email accounts of staff members are the "sholnewton.org" addresses. Please disregard any other communication. You can always call the parish offices if you are not sure about the authenticity of certain emails.

Monthly Mass for the Sick

The next Monthly Mass for the Sick, sponsored by the Mass for the Sick ministry of Sacred Heart/Our Lady Help of Christians Collaborative, will be on Monday, July 22, 2019 at 6:30 p.m. at Our Lady's Church. Msgr. Dennis Sheehan, of the SH/OL Collaborative, will celebrate the Mass and Anointing of the Sick.

After refreshments, Tim McHale and the Boston Minstrels will entertain us with their joyful music. It promises to be a delightful, uplifting evening.

The evening is designed to bring joy, hope, and peace to those who are affected by illness, including family and friends. The Mass and program will both be held downstairs at Our Lady's Church, located at 573 Washington Street in Newton. For questions or more information, please contact Pat Enright at 617-467-4482 - penright298@gmail.com, or Lorraine Higgins at 617-244-0267 - higlor1@msn.com, or the parish offices. All are welcome!

Collaborative Picnic

Our Annual Sacred Heart and Our Lady's Collaborative Picnic this year will be Sunday, September 22, from 12:00pm to 3:00pm on the front lawn of Our Lady's Church. All Are Welcome!

If you attended last year and enjoyed the day, please spread the word about our picnic to your neighbors and friends. We will supply hamburgers, hot dogs & ice cream; you supply soft drinks and any other foods your family will enjoy. If you would like to share a finger food dessert or salad with other people, bring it along; we will have tables set up for your items. Bring your blanket and chairs and enjoy an afternoon of fun; there will be games, races, pony rides and more. If you would like to make a monetary donation to help defray the expenses of the picnic, please make your check payable to "Our Lady's" with "picnic" written on the memo line. Donations can be dropped in the collection baskets or mailed to the parish office.

Note: Grill will close at 2:30pm.

AEDs at Both Churches

An AED -- Automated external defibrillator for heart emergencies is located in the central foyer of both churches. What should one do if someone is in need of medical attention that may be heart related? (1) Call 911 immediately. (2) Call out for medical personnel in the congregation -- we have loads of them -- and follow their instructions. (3) Notify the priest. (4) If called for, use the AED -- it is self-explanatory. Though a non-medical person can use it, please defer to any medical personnel as to its use. (5) Send someone to the doors of the church to keep an eye out for the Ambulance or Fire Dept. so that they can be guided directly to the person in need. (6) Pray to God for the health of the person.

New Pastoral Associate: Welcome Nick Frega!

Nick Frega joined the collaborative staff on July 1 as a Pastoral Associate, ministering primarily but not exclusively at Sacred Heart. Nick grew up in central Connecticut. He studied Religion and Politics at Fairfield University before going to earn an MA in Theology through the Echo program at the University of Notre Dame.

While studying for his MA, he lived in Christian community and ministered for two years near Tampa, Florida, in a variety of parish catechetical and pastoral roles. Then he spent around a year working at the Diocese of Rochester, NY, in a variety of parish support, ecumenical, and inter-religious roles. He is excited to join the community at Sacred Heart and Our Lady's!

Summer Prayer

Father, Creator of all, thank You for summer!

Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.

Thank You for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.

Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family,
and for the more casual pace of the summer season.

Draw me closer to You this summer.

Teach me how I can pray
no matter where I am or what I am doing.

Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Counsel.

As I enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You.

We ask this in Jesus' name.

Amen.

Fr. John Sassani
Homily Given on July 15, 2007
Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

I have a friend who is married and has three sons. He is a good and loving man but had sternness born of suffering. One of his sons was a troublesome teenager – not bad, but testing every boundary, much as his father had done. My friend always responded to his son's antics punitively. One day, my friend spoke to a friend of his, another father of teenagers, looking for support. His friend told him, 'I have one question for you. The way you answer it will determine how you handle your son. This is the question: When you're dead, do you want your sons to remember you as being right or as having loved them?'

Jesus would like my friend's friend, I think. Something similar is going on in today's Gospel. The scholar of the law asks Jesus a disingenuous question, for of course as a scholar he knew the answer: 'How do I inherit eternal life?' Jesus turns the question back on him – 'What is written in the law?' The scholar answers the same way Jesus answers the question – love God and love your neighbor.

The lawyer presses on. 'Well, who is my neighbor?' Jesus' example is compelling – a robbery victim, left for dead on a lonely road – compelling for it is by no means unknown in that time or place. The priest and the Levite (Levites would be akin to pastoral associates in our day) acted rightly according to their norms. To deal with this bloodied, naked man would render them unclean according to the Jewish law, and therefore unable to perform their duties at the temple. On the other hand, no Jew would expect a Samaritan to help this man –and another Samaritan would have applauded had he passed by.

This Samaritan, known forever as good, chose to love rather than be right according to the customs of the time. His choice actually goes deeper. He chooses to be a friend, rather than perpetuate being the enemy of Jews. He chooses to see this dying Jew as a friend, not an enemy.

Jesus' answer to the lawyer reflects a shift in the question – from 'who is my neighbor?' – to 'are you willing to be a neighbor to everyone?'

The parable actually reveals that God, in Christ our Lord, has become the Samaritan who cares for us in our uncared for state. Let us ask Jesus, as He comes to care for us in the Eucharist, to help us always choose to be remembered for love as He is.

Looking for Msgr. Dennis's homily reflection? We are taking a break from printing them, after having run them from the Feast of Christ the King in November through Pentecost last weekend. In the weeks and months ahead, we hope to bring you some of Fr. John Sassani's homilies from the last decade. A reminder that these bulletin homilies will be available each week at www.sholnewton.org/godeeper

Care for Creation: An Emergency Response to Climate Crisis

Faced with a climate emergency, the world must act immediately to mitigate global warming to 1.5 degrees Celsius and avoid committing "a brutal act of injustice" on the poor and future generations, Pope Francis told a group of energy and oil executives and global investors, who in their own statement offered support for a price on carbon emissions.

"Time is running out! Deliberations must go beyond mere exploration of what can be done and concentrate on what needs to be done from today onward," he said.

"We do not have the luxury of waiting for others to step forward or of prioritizing short-term economic benefits. The climate crisis requires our decisive action, here and now," he said June 14 at the Vatican. -Catholic News Service

Learn at Mass

When a man becomes a priest, the Holy Spirit is sent upon him so that he can celebrate Mass and the Sacraments. Who are the priests in your parish?

Gospel: Today, we hear Jesus tell the story of the Good Samaritan. A man was hurt, but no one would stop to help him! Listen carefully to the story to find out what happened and what we should do for others.

Thank You, Fr. Michael Hahn!

We will miss his outstanding homilies, talks, and hospitality. Fr. Michael's folks will be in town from Minnesota for a vacation the weekend of July 4th, so he will be blessed with their help in packing and has decided to move up his departure date to either Wednesday, July 10, or Thursday, July 11. Thank you cards can be sent to 2900 Abbey Plaza, P.O. Box 2015, Collegeville, MN 56321.

A Word from Fr. Michael

Three years ago, in the middle of doctoral studies at Boston College, Father John welcomed me to join the Newton collaborative. I remember that he told me that I would like the people. Happily, that has been the case, and I feel very grateful to you.

Living among you for the past few years has taught me much about being both a priest and a monk. This has been a real-world education! Since I have also finished my formal studies, I will be returning to Minnesota. But I leave feeling very grateful to the people here – thank you! And I promise to keep you in my prayers.

~Fr. Michael Hahn, OSB

Condiments Needed

in the lower elevator lobby OR at weekend Masses in either the elevator lobby or the upper church foyer at Sacred Heart.

Keep Your Loved Ones Connected!

The Ministry of Care members gathered during the week and would like to remind parishioners that we can visit, bring Communion to, and send cards and the weekly bulletin to homebound parishioners, keeping them in our prayers and keeping them lovingly connected to the parish. Monthly greeting cards are sent. If you think you or someone else would enjoy receiving a card from the parish, please contact the parish office and let us know!

Parish Office Closed

The Sacred Heart Parish Office will be closed Thursday, July 18, through Thursday, August 1. We will reopen on Friday, August 2.

Please know that, while the office is closed, the staff is still available. Please call the office, and your call will be answered at Our Lady's, where they can put you in touch with whomever you need (except for Sioux, who will be away on vacation). We apologize for any inconvenience.

Have a lovely summer holiday!
